HEALTH CARE CATERING

Red bean hospitality main function of health care catering is, follow NABH all standard with Hygienic & aseptic condition. To serve appetising & nourishing meals to the patients. We believe patients deserve good, nutritious food to aid with their recovery and make their stay pleasant. We plan and execute suitable diets which in addition will have a therapeutic effect.

BALANCED DIET PLAN

Red bean recognize the nutrition value food for patient's treatment. High quality food is very essential in the recovery of the patient. We work with the chief dietician to develop menus that help patients choose the right food for their individual needs. Our food catering contractors give patients a variety of choice in food by:

- Give priority to patient's choice by updating menus regularly and then offering variety of seasonal options.
- Generating interest and enthusiasm about foodstuff, and eliminating stereotyped opinions about hospital food.
- We have weekly menus based on seasonal variations in vegetables. The menus are planned to keep in mind the therapeutic needs of the patient, color combination, texture etc.
